

Supplemental table 1

PRO-CTCAE Grade 3 Toxicities

|           |                     | Patient 1 | Patient 2 | Patient 3 | Patient 4 | Patient 5 |
|-----------|---------------------|------------------|------------------|------------------|------------------|------------------|
| GI | Diarrhea            | -                | -                | +                | -                | -                |
|           | Abdominal pain      | -                | -                | -                | -                | +                |
|           | Nausea              | -                | +                | -                | -                | -                |
| GU | Dysuria             | -                | -                | -                | -                | +                |
|           | Increased frequency | -                | -                | +                | -                | +                |
|           | Fatigue             | -                | +                | -                | -                | -                |

No grade III/IV PRO-CTCAE toxicities reported at 6 months follow-up